

Fox & Roach Charities donate to 3 area outreach organizations

Posted Jan 4, 2020 at 12:01 PM

Gilda's Club, the Family Service Association of Bucks County and NOVA were recipients of donations from Fox & Roach Charities.

Fox & Roach Charities, a foundation sponsored by Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices, Fox & Roach Realtors and The Trident Group, distributed three donations collected at three of the company's Bucks County offices to support three local outreach organizations.

The Yardley Home Marketing Center chose the Family Service Association of Bucks County, headquartered in Middletown, to support the organization's homeless shelter. The Newtown Home Marketing Center selected Gilda's Club of Warminster, a nonprofit outreach supporting families coping with a cancer diagnosis.

The Doylestown office presented a donation to representatives of Network of Victim Assistance, or NOVA, to support the organization's outreach programs that benefit children, adults and the elderly who are victims of crime.

"We are pleased to continue our annual charitable giving. All of our offices and departments find it so gratifying to help so many in need," explains Kassie Erb, president of Fox & Roach Charities.

