NO SHAVE NOVEMBER IS A SHEAR DELIGHT FOR NOVA

Central Bucks Regional Police Department, CB West Student Council & Area Businesses Participated

BUCKS COUNTY, PA. Network of Victim Assistance (NOVA) recently received donations from the Central Bucks Regional Police Department and Central Bucks West High School Student Council for No-Shave November. During No-Shave November, participants forgo shaving for a month in order to start conversations and raise awareness for a cause they support.

The Central Bucks Regional Police Department raised these funds via collection bins placed at various businesses in Bucks County, including:

- Nat's Pizza in Doylestown
- Nico's Pizza in New Britain
- Pizza Village in Doylestown

As result Central Bucks Regional Police Department was able to raise $1,936.00. In addition, the Central Bucks West High School Student Council donated $100 to NOVA.

“NOVA has worked with Central Bucks Regional Police Department for a number of years and is grateful for their support of our programs and services for child abuse victims,” said Mandy Mundy, Senior Director of Programs and Services. “We also want to thank the local community and businesses whose support contributed to the success of Central Bucks Regional Police Department’s No Shave November initiative.”

ABOUT NOVA

Network of Victim Assistance (NOVA) supports, counsels and empowers victims of sexual assault and other serious crimes in Bucks County and works to prevent and eliminate violence in society through advocacy, training, community education and prevention programs. Founded in 1974, NOVA is a non-profit 501(c)(3), community-based organization operating out of three offices in Fairless Hills, Jamison and Perkasie. Services are made possible through the financial support of federal, state and local government grants and contracts, corporations, foundations and private donations. All contributions are tax deductible to the extent provided by law. For more information, visit www.NOVABucks.org.

About Central Bucks Regional Police Department

The Central Bucks Regional Police Department is a regional police department serving the Boroughs of Chalfont, Doylestown and New Britain. The Department has been highly focused in 2019 on enhancing community trust through police response to victims of sexual assault and domestic violence. Through this initiative, the department has worked closely with NOVA to develop best practice policies and serve on the Sexual Assault Response Team. The department and its Police Benevolent Association make every effort to be community focused and responsive to the needs of its collaborative partners.
