NOVA WELCOMES TWO NEW BOARD MEMBERS

(BUCKS COUNTY, Pa.) NOVA, the leading non-profit organization in Bucks County supporting victims of serious crime, is pleased to announce that the following business and community leaders have joined its Board of Directors.

Eddie Hale, Associate Counsel, Parexel, a clinical research organization located in Princeton, that provides the full range of Phase I to IV clinical development services to help life-saving treatments reach patients faster. Prior to working at Parexel, Hale worked at the Princeton office of Troutman Pepper, a law firm that specializes in banking and financial services, corporate and securities, and commercial real estate. Hale is member of the New York and New Jersey Bar Associations.

Michelle Sooby-Saldutti, Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Coordinator, Parx Casino, located in Bensalem. Sooby-Saldutti is a committee member of the Building a Better Bensalem Community Coalition, a board member for The Greater Northeast Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Bensalem Lions Club. She has three daughters and seven grandchildren.

"We are so pleased to have Eddie and Michelle join NOVA's Board of Directors," said Penelope Ettinger, Executive Director, NOVA. "They bring varied business experience, a dedication to service and a commitment to NOVA's mission. I am delighted to have the opportunity to work with both of them."

About NOVA

NOVA supports, counsels and empowers victims of sexual assault and other serious crimes in Bucks County and works to prevent and eliminate violence in society through advocacy, training, community education and prevention programs. Founded in 1974, NOVA is a non-profit 501(c)(3), community-based organization operating out of three offices in Fairless Hills, Jamison and Perkasio. Services are made possible through the financial support of federal, state and local government grants and contracts, corporations, foundations and private donations. All contributions are tax deductible to the extent provided by law. For more information, visit www.NOVABucks.org.
